PREFACE

This thesis describe about positive politeness and educational value which is the essence of the daily activity. Politeness is a kind of sociocultural context, an approach used to preserve harmonious communication abilities, and a kind of tradition of cognitive actions. Many children and teenagers prefer to learn English by watching a movie to reading text books. Children and young teenagers get education from their parents. In addition, a good movie containing a good character, personality, and morality can also help children and young teenagers in building and improving their characters. People can find several morality aspects in a movie. By pursuing such a film, it consciously set out to instill educational values into children. The reasons why the researcher choose this title because. In everyday life, mainly for parents and teachers, it is important for everyone else to apply this educational value. In the life of general society, positive politeness is very important. Many people would appreciate and love where someone uses positive politeness.
